

RAINWATER HARVESTING

Rainwater is a great source of free water for your landscape. Rainwater is better for your landscape than treated water that comes out of your taps. Not only is rainwater harvesting easy to do, but it helps out the environment by keeping plants healthy and slowing down how much stormwater enters our creeks and streams at one time. Interested in learning more? Come to our workshop!

Friday, April 13, 2018 : Noon - 1:00 PM
Public Works Facility
11300 Research Road